Anutone conducts Soundz PW – a Product Workshop

Anutone successfully concluded a product workshop for beginners. Based on the new QuickGuide, the 3-day workshop took participants through the vast array of products and systems apart from walls and ceiling design tips. In attendance were dealer reps and the new recruits to Team Anutone. The workshop concluded with a tour of the new Experience Centre where demo installs of full-size panels give the idea of the real install. Interested in attending the next Soundz PW*? To be conducted sometime in Week 15, 12-17 April 2010, register here today.
