

High on emotion, low on emission

This is not an ad for automobiles!

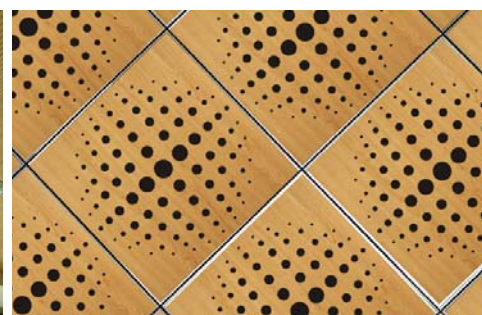

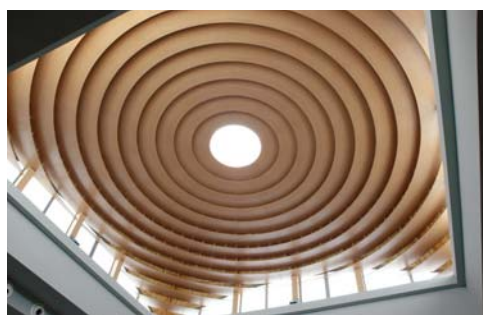

Salon wood ceilings from Anutone evoke positive emotions with drop-dead gorgeous looks and efficient acoustics. Incredible beauty is matched with durability and state-of-the-art panel engineering.

Salon wood ceilings are developed with the ecosystem in mind. This means multiple options, simplified design approach, easy installation and maintenance, low lifecycle costs. Anutone supplies the complete system including all accessories for trained applicators to install. Hassle-free!

Circular, slotted, square or lineal perforations, microperforated, melamine or veneer choices, an array of delicious wood grain patterns, standard to megapanel format, flat or curved. Wood ceilings are taking the world's interiors by storm, so why not Asia with Salon from Anutone?

Salon wood ceilings are eco-friendly as they are made from renewable forestry resources in Spain. Anutone and their international associates, Ideatec, have been awarded the wood conservation certificate by 'Adopt a Tree Foundation', Spain. Salon wood ceilings are hygienic as they are low on VOC emissions. For Anutone, green comes first! Green wood could be the next ph(r)ase!

Anutone Walls & Ceilings loops e-design every Tuesday morning. If you have missed previous issues please visit www.anutone.com/infobin/edesign.html or contact a Anutone rep.
