Solutions for metal ceilings - what's new?

The mantra at Anutone is architectural spaces must look good and sound great. We enjoy contradicting the popular notion, 'Blind Acousticians, Deaf Architects'. We firmly believe that optimal acoustics can be delivered with stunning aesthetics and vice versa - striking visuals can sound great. Here are Serge updates that are testimony!

Serge Auriga

The new microperf pattern ...

Anutone launches Auriga microperf in Serge metal ceilings. Auriga microperf is almost invisible and the smallest hole possible in sheet metal for acoustical purposes. Auriga microperf renders the panels close to unperf or plain and hence enhances the aesthetics manifold.

Serge Perfs

Anutone optimises custom perf patterns ...

From unperf to microperf to megaperf, Anutone's Serge has it all! Inspired by the constellations in the universe Anutone optimises and brands the perf patterns to ensure high fidelity from design intent to site reality and everything in between.

Anutone's Serge metal ceilings is in association with CMC USA & Aspen Turkey. Blind Acousticians, Deaf Architects is the title of a book by Robert Apfael.
